GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS DENNIS TO TRANSPORTATION BOARD

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Tony M. Dennis of Norwood to the Board of Transportation.

Dennis is president and CEO of Southeastern Materials in Albemarle. He is chairman of the Stanly County Commissioners and the Stanly County Airport Authority. Dennis received the Silver Beaver Scouting Award in 1995 and was named Man of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America in 2003. He received his Bachelor's degree in English from Wingate University.

The board carries out the Highway Trust Fund enacted by the legislature and the Federal ISTEA program in a manner to best meet the transportation needs of the State of North Carolina. There are 19 members on the board, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints all members.
